

William C. (Will) Fleenor, CPA.CITP, Ph.D.

Shareholder, K2 Enterprises

1250 SW Railroad, Suite 240A

Hammond, Louisiana 70403

Phone (985) 542-9390 FAX (985) 542-9397

will@k2e.com

Experience: Public Accounting - 7 years.
University Accounting Professor - 12 years.
Shareholder K2 Enterprises, LLC - 21 years.

CPE Discussion Leader - Will has written numerous CPE (Continuing Professional Education) courses and has taught over 300 days of CPE for CPAs. Most of these courses have been on microcomputer or auditing topics.

Awards: The "Louisiana Accounting Educator of the Year Award," an award presented jointly by the Society of Louisiana CPAs and the AICPA.
"Society of Louisiana CPAs Discussion Leader of the Year" award.
The Louisiana Society's "Special Services Award" for efforts in developing and teaching Continuing Professional Education courses for the Louisiana CPA Society.
The Illinois Society of CPAs "Instructor Excellence Award" for teaching excellence.
The Society of Louisiana CPAs "Special Recognition Award" for contributions to the Society's CPE program.
The Society of Louisiana CPAs "Discussion Leader of the Year" award.

Degrees: BBA in Accounting from Loyola University - 1972
MS in Accounting from the University of New Orleans - 1975
Ph.D. in Accounting from Louisiana State University - 1978

Will is currently a Shareholder of K2 Enterprises, LLC. Will has conducted seminars for more than 40 State CPA Societies, and has spoken at numerous accounting technology conferences, including speaking at the AICPA Information Technology Conference for 16 years, as well as doing training for other organizations such as the FBI. Will is a past Chairman of the AICPA Information Technology Conference, as well as past chairman of other conferences and professional committees. Will is a co-author of the Practitioners Publishing Company's "Guide to Installing Microcomputer Accounting Systems" and has had numerous articles published in professional journals including the Journal of Accountancy, the CPA Journal, and others.