Douglas Sleeter is the Founder of The Sleeter Group, the national leader in QuickBooks training and consulting for accounting professionals, providing QuickBooks resources for small business owners, accountants, bookkeepers QuickBooks consultants, CPAs and QuickBooks software developers.

Mr. Sleeter attended the University of California Santa Cruz where he received his Bachelor of Science degree in Computer and Information Science. Mr. Sleeter worked as a staff accountant for several accounting firms including Stanley Dowling, CPA, Charles Strauhal, CPA and Porterfield and Delancy CPAs. In addition to his accounting background, Mr. Sleeter has extensive experience in the software industry working with software developers and industry leaders such as Apple Computer, Adobe Systems, Silicon Graphics and Quorum Software.

In 1994, Mr. Sleeter founded The Sleeter Group to provide QuickBooks consulting and training to small business owners and accountants. Since that time, Mr. Sleeter has taught over 30,000 QuickBooks users and accountants how to properly use QuickBooks software.

Mr. Sleeter was a pioneer in developing the first QuickBooks seminars in the country and was selected to develop early Intuit training materials. He continues to consult with Intuit on the development of the QuickBooks product line and he also consults with QuickBooks Add-on software developers.

In addition to consulting directly with small business owners including several international clients, Mr. Sleeter provides expert level support and consulting to hundreds of small business accounting software consultants through the Sleeter Group's Consultant's Network, a group of highly trained small business accounting software experts.

Mr. Sleeter is the author of over 40 books and numerous courseware materials including The QuickBooks Consultant's Reference Guide, The Successful QuickBooks Consulting System, The Learning QuickBooks Step-by-Step Teaching System, The Sleeter Group's online newsletter: The Desktop Accountant and he is the co-author of QuickBooks for Not-for-Profit Organizations. Mr. Sleeter writes a regular column, The QuickBooks Advisor for The CPA Technology Advisor magazine.

Mr. Sleeter is the host of the Sleeter Group's annual Accounting Software Consulting Conference, bringing together hundreds of small business accounting software consultants and developers from across the nation.
