

Nancy A. Cohen, CPA.CITP, CIPP is a senior technical manager on the AICPA Specialized Communities and Practice Management Team. She has held numerous positions at the AICPA during her twenty-two year career and was instrumental in the creation of the IT membership section and the Certified Information Technology Professional (CITP) credential. She is currently responsible for the CITP, IT membership section and the areas of Privacy and Trust Services. Nancy serves as the staff liaison to the AICPA/CICA Privacy Task Force, Information Technology Executive Committee and the CITP Credential Committee. She holds a B.A. in Accounting from Queens College and a MBA in Taxation from St. John's University